HELP FOR ALL

The Center for Critical Needs offers help to individuals who have a critical need when that need cannot be met by an existing program or service. Referrals to the Center for Critical Needs come from M4A's Aging & Disability Resource Center (ADRC). Specialists in M4A's ADRC complete assessments and refer individuals to the Center for Critical Needs. Referrals may also come from community partners and the general public. Referrals can be made at www.4allfoundation.org.

CENTER 4
ELDER JUSTICE
& ADVOCACY
JUSTICE FOR ALL

The Center for Elder Justice & Advocacy's mission is to equitably meet the diverse elder justice needs of Alabama's older and vulnerable adults through:

- Elder Services
- Public Education and Outreach
- Professional Training
- Elder Justice Resource Center

The Center for Elder Justice and Advocacy is a trusted resource that can improve long term health, social, and functional status; enhance autonomy and independence; and mitigate the risks of recurrent abuse so individuals can remain safe and unharmed in their local communities as they age. The Center places a special focus to support family caregivers and provide the assistance and tools they need to better care for their loved ones as they go through their caregiving journey.

The Center serves as Alabama's primary Elder Justice Resource Center to help access support, training, education, and community-based resources.
